Welcome Aboard—Travel Day

Our first day's travel takes us across Illinois and Indiana. Late afternoon finds us in the Elyria, Ohio area for our first overnight.

Day 2—Monday, August 2, 2021

Gettysburg Cyclorama & Museum

Later this afternoon, we will be arriving at the Gettysburg Military Park Museum and Visitor Center. This wonderful new facility had its grand opening on September 26, 2008. The Museum and Visitor Center features the exclusive Cyclorama, Film, and Museum Experience. The massive Cyclorama painting, which literally surrounds visitors with a magnificent visual of the fury of Pickett's Charge and the Gettysburg Museum of the American Civil War, featuring 12 exhibit galleries that contain artifacts and interactive displays. This evening's accommodations will be in the downtown Gettysburg area. This evening you will have free time to relax at the hotel. CB

Day 3—Tuesday, August 3, 2021

Gettysburg Battlefield Guided Tour, Arlington National Cemetery, Monuments Light Tour

This morning you will be able to enjoy a wonderful guided tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield. Our next stop in the early afternoon will be at the Arlington

National Cemetery. At Arlington Cemetery, you will be able to view the Changing of the Guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

View the Eternal Flame, marking the gravesite of John F. Kennedy and his brother Robert. Also, view Jackie Kennedy Onassis' gravesite. Later this afternoon, we will check into our deluxe accommodations in the Washington, D.C. area, which we will be calling home for the next 4 evenings. This evening you will be able to enjoy a colorful "skylight" tour of our Nation's Capital.

Stops will be made at the Lincoln Memorial, Vietnam Wall, Korean Memorial, Jefferson Memorial, Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial, and the World War II Memorial. This evening's tour will be a great time to get some beautiful pictures of the monuments at night. CB

Day 4—Wednesday, August 4, 2021

Nation's Capital, National Archives, Ford's Theater

This morning at our first stop you will be able to enjoy a tour of our Nation's Capital. You'll see a brief orientation film entitled "Out of Many, One", which describes how we come together as a nation to govern ourselves. The tour itself includes stops at the Rotunda of the Capitol and National Statuary Hall. We have scheduled time this afternoon for you to enjoy the National Archives. At the National Archives, you will be able to view the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and the Declaration of Independence. Next, you will be able to enjoy a visit at Ford's Theater. You will step back in time and learn about the events of April 14, 1865 and the lasting impact of Lincoln's assassination on our nation. Visit the Peterson House where he died across the street. CB, Lunch

Day 5—Thursday, August 5, 2021

Mount Vernon—George Washington's Estate, Washington, D.C. Guided Tour, Spirit Cruises Dinner Cruise

Our first stop today will be at Mount Vernon, George Washington's historic estate. You will view the colonial era buildings, beautiful gardens, and gristmill. This afternoon we will have a local step-on guide join us for a guided tour of the Washington, D.C. area. This evening you will be able to enjoy a dinner cruise on the Potomac River with fascinating views of America's great landmarks and Washington, D.C.'s historic waterfront. While enjoying the highlights on the cruise, you can have a wonderful dinner, dance, and have a great time! CB, Dinner
